

Today is "All Saints Sunday" and we want to recognize and remember all of those church members and friends who have died this year. As the Bible says, they are "absent from their bodies, but present with the Lord." Many of those listed were very special members or friends of this church and surrounding community. We thank God for sharing these person's lives with us as gifts and we will all greatly miss them. Here's a list of those persons:
